NOTES.

The will of John Bradford of Kingston, made the latter end of March last, proved April 28, 1724, bequeaths to my daughter Rebecca my thirty acre lot lying on the north side of Jones River in Plymouth, which I bought of Nathaniel Holmes.

— Plymouth County Probate Records, iv. 439.

Nathaniel Holmes, Jr., of Plymouth, by a deed dated April 15, 1702, conveys to John Bradford, Jr., of Plymouth my lot or tract of Land in Plymouth containing thirty acres, sd Land is on ye North side of Jones River, on Sturtevant's Maine, bounded on ye Southeast End wth a clump of red oake trees marked by the side of ye River & from thence extending north & by west sixty rods to a pine tree marked on ye four sides, & from thence west & by south half a point southerly one hundred rods to a pine tree marked & so down the River & then bounded by the River till it come to ye bounds first mentioned.—Plymouth County Deeds, v. 164.

John Brewster of Kingston and Rebecca his wife, by a deed dated April 18, 1747, convey to Joseph Holmes of Kingston, our thirty acre lot in Kingston lying on the north side of Jones river, bounded beginning at a bunch of red oaks standing on the bank of the river, thence running by land that was formerly Major Bradfords & William Bradford's land till it comes to a great Pine tree, a bound of the land of Joseph Holmes dec'd, & from thence near south west till it comes to the above sd river, then bounded by said river to the bounds first mentioned.

— Plymouth County Deeds, lxiv. 134.

The appearance of the name of Rebecca Brewster in the granting clause of the last deed and the absence of the usual clause releasing right of dower, show that she possessed the land in her own right. The marks, boundaries, size and shape of this tract are identical with those of the tract which John Bradford bought of Nathaniel Holmes and bequeathed to his daughter Rebecca. As there is no record of any transfer of this tract of land either from Rebecca Bradford or to Rebecca Brewster, it becomes apparent that John Brewster's wife was the daughter of John Bradford. The apparent discrepancy in the location of this thirty acre lot (in Plymouth in 1702 and in Kingston in 1747) is explained by the fact that Kingston was established in 1726 from a part of Plymouth.

Descendants of John and Rebecca (Bradford) Brewster will now be able to add to their list of Mayflower ancestors the names of William Bradford, Richard Warren, John Alden, Priscilla, Alice and William Mullins.—Editor.

FLETCHER GENEALOGY. Mr. Charles R. Fletcher of Watertown, Mass., has undertaken the preparation of a revised edition of the Fletcher Genealogy. All persons interested are requested to send corrections and additions to him at once.

THE GENEALOGIST'S NOTE BOOK, A WEEKLY PUBLICATION INTENDED TO FURNISH GENEALOGICAL GOSSIP, AND HELPFUL IDEAS TO GENEALOGISTS, is the title of a four page periodical published by The Endecott Press at Danvers, Mass., at one dollar per year. The first number gives the contents of the recent issues of the various genealogical magazines and miscellaneous items relating to historical societies and old records. A well edited weekly publication of this kind would be very useful to genealogists and all persons engaged in compiling family histories or tracing out the lines of their ancestry. The active interest of those who are engaged in tracing family history is needed to sustain this undertaking, and it may be shown by subscribing, and by sending in items of interest to the editor, Ellen Putnam, Esq., of Danvers, Mass.

GENEALOGICAL NOTES AND QUERIES. The Sunday Inter Ocean of Chicago, is to begin a department of notes and queries in the issue of February 12, similar to those published in the Boston Transcript, and the Mail and Express, of New York. All are invited to send in queries, which will be published free of charge, and to answer such queries as they can. Subscription, $2.00 per year. Address the Genealogical Editor, Sunday Inter Ocean, Chicago.

GORHAM GENEALOGY. Henry S. Gorham, Esq., (197 Wilson Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.) has a large collection of data for a history of the family descended from Capt. John and Desire (Howland) Gorham of Barnstable, Mass. Francis W. Sprague, Esq., of Boston, has done considerable work in tracing the early generations of this family, and has given his material to Mr. Gorham.

IPSWICH, MASS. Old Ipswich, a Magazine of Local Genealogy and History is the title of a new periodical which promises to publish the births, marriages and deaths of that town, together with pertinent sketches by local writers. SAMOSSET. The following letter from a well known authority on the language of the Eastern Indians gives the possible derivations of the name "Samoset".*

DIOCESE OF PORTLAND,

VICAR GENERAL'S OFFICE.

BANGOR, DEC. 1, 1898

William Prescott Greenlaw, Esq.,
Boston.

My Dear Sir :

I beg you to excuse my delay in replying to your communication of Nov. 23, in relation to the Indian name "Samoset." Before answering I wished to be able to look over some roots in which to find a probable derivation.

Now my impression is, that like many other Indian names, Samoset is mutilated at the beginning, having lost one syllable at least. In its present form I can find only two possible (I do not venture to give either as probable) derivations. These are from the root San, conveying the idea of strength and firmness, and from Sanb (with n nasal) signifying through, penetrating. There is hardly any doubt that oset in the termination is the relative participial form of the verbal root — osan, oset. This root is generally spelled by the French missionaries with a double s and S (Italian u) instead of the o of the English. So that by prefixing the qualifying roots first mentioned to this verbal termination, we form Sano'sset and Sanbo'sset. The first would mean a strong or firm walker or marcher; the second a thorough goer. It is my impression that names thus formed, particularly from the root osan, to march, were quite common.

I give this explanation, however, as merely possible; for it is possible that another syllable, if not more than one, may have preceded Sam—. Thus U'san-messet would mean an excessive walker. In like manner, though I cannot find its verification at present, I think there is a word, pesamosset, which would mean thick or close, walker. This much can be said in favor of Samoset, that it possibly may have been Samōsset in the dialect spoken around Temaguid. For the differences between Indian dialects of the same family mostly consist in the interchange of the liquids, l, m, n, and r. On the other hand, it is no objection to Sanbo'sset that it has a b, for frequently a b after a nasal n sounds not unlike m. Thus Arenambe in Rastes' dictionary, an Abnaki, has become "Aluambay," and, as it is pronounced by modern Penobscots, requires a practiced ear to catch all the letters.

*See note to Capt. John Somerset's Gift to John and Elizabeth Pearce, ante Vol. I., pages 100-102. See also Coll. Maine Hist. Society. IX. 259-294.

That "Samosset" is an Indian name is confirmed by the circumstance that the name of his associate chief, "Unnongoit," is undoubtedly Indian. Unnongo is the relative participle of unangin, to rise (from a bed or lair), and means, the Riser.

Regretting that I cannot give you some more satisfactory answer, I am

Respectfully yours,

M. C. O'BRIEN, V. G.

SHEARS GENEALOGY. A genealogy of this family, branches of which spell the name Shearer, Schearer, Scherer, and Sheir, is being compiled by Mr. George Thurston Waterman of the New York State Library, Albany, N. Y.

SUNDERLAND, MASS. A genealogical register of the families of Sunderland, Mass., is being prepared by Miss Abbie F. Montague of that town. This work was begun by Henry W. Taft of Pittsfield. Miss Montague will, as far as possible, trace each family back to the immigrant ancestor. In this part of her work she desires the assistance of all persons interested in Sunderland families.

THURSTON GENEALOGY. Mr. George Thurston Waterman of the New York State Library, is collecting material for a history of the descendants of Job Thurston (No. 5727 in the second edition of the Thurston Genealogy by Brown Thurston) who married Dorcas, daughter of John and Anna Garnsey, of Dutchess County, New York.

VAIL GENEALOGY. Henry H. Vail, Esq., (322 West 75th Street, New York City) is preparing for publication a history of the family descended from Jeremiah Vail who was in Salem, Mass., in 1639, and removed to Southold, Long Island.

WATERMAN GENEALOGY. Mr. William H. Waterman of New Bedford, Mass., is writing a genealogy of the family of this name whose progenitor was Richard Waterman of Rhode Island. George Thurston Waterman, of the New York State Library, is at work on a history of the descendants of Robert Waterman of Marshfield, Mass.

QUERIES.

A charge of one cent per word is made for the insertion of queries, and a year's subscription to THE ADVERTISER will be given for the first correct answer to each query. Queries which could easily be answered by using well known genealogical books will not be accepted.

Wanted:

62. The parentage of John Mitchell, of Marshfield, who married Lydia Hatch of Scituate, January 20, 1738. G. W. S.
63. The parentage of Jane Hall, of Narraguagus, now Cherryfield, Me., who married Thomas Brackett, of Portland, Me., December 9, 1702. She was born in 1740, and died May 10, 1810. They were the great-grandparents of Hon. Thomas Brackett Reed. A. L. B.
64. Proofs of the connection of the three John Yates mentioned below, the parentage of their wives, and full lists of their children with dates of birth.
  1. John Yates of Duxbury, had by wife Mary a son John, born at Duxbury, Aug. 15, 1650. The father died before June 8, 1651, when letters of administration were granted to the widow Mary. She married in October, 1651, Richard Higgins of Eastham.

2. John Yates, of Eastham, supposed to have been the son of John and Mary and the "son-in-law" (step-son) of Richard Higgins, died prior to July 7, 1682, leaving widow Deborah, son John, and daughters Martha and Mary.
3. John Yates, of Eastham, supposed to have been the son of John and Deborah, married Abigail Rogers, January 11, 1699.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

47. Elizabeth*, second wife of Isaac Sampson, was married three times. Her first husband was Samuel Shaw of Raynham. She married second, June 12, 1734, Isaac Sampson of Plympton and Middleboro, and third, November 6, 1750, Edward Richmond of Taunton. She died October 10, 1782, aged 81. ## BOOK NOTES.

A Report of the Record Commissioners of the City of Boston, containing the Boston Marriages from 1700 to 1751. [Prepared by Edward Webster McGlenen.] Boston. 1898. Svo, pp. viii + 468. [28th report.]

William H. Whitmore, Esq., City Registrar, made no mistake when he chose Mr. McGlenen to prepare the Boston marriage records for publication. The wisdom of his selection is amply shown by the 28th volume of this series. This volume contains the marriages from the official town records, the returns of Boston marriages from the clerks of other towns to the county clerk, marriages found in the various church records not found in the official records, and such intentions as occurred without subsequent record of marriage. These marriages have been carefully compared with the publications and all differences noted. An excellent, full-name index adds greatly to the usefulness of the volume.

The John Rogers Families of Plymouth and Vicinity. Second and Revised Edition. By Josiah H. Drummond. Portland, 1898. Svo, pp. 28. Price, fifty cents. For sale by H. W. Bryant, 223 Middle Street, Portland, Me.

The identification of the several persons by the name of John Rogers, who at an early date were residents of Plymouth, Duxbury, Marshfield, Weymouth and Scituate, was a genealogical problem of considerable magnitude. The results of an exhaustive and critical study of this problem are presented in this pamphlet. The additional data in the revised edition confirm the conclusions set forth in the first, where the identity of the different individuals was established beyond a reasonable doubt.

Ancestral Charts so arranged as to show any number of generations and Record of Ancestral Honors, Heirlooms, Portraits, Coat-Armor, etc. Second Edition. Copyrighted 1898, by Eben Putnam. Price in flexible cover, $1.00. For sale by Eben Putnam, Danvers, Mass.

This record book contains thirty-four full-page charts, each having spaces for five generations, four half page charts, and several pages for indexes, list of authorities, and coat armor. The arrangement is very simple, and the book is one of the best yet designed for this purpose, especially for the use of beginners.

*See ante Vol. I, page 126. Elizabeth does not appear in the list of the children of Jacob and Lydia (Miller) Cooke on the Kingston Records. See ante page 8.

NOTES.

LOUISBURG SOLDIERS.

Bristol, [Maine,] Feb. 21st, 1848.

Dear Brother — I have delayed writing till now in consequence of waiting for a convenient opportunity to make the inquiries which you desired. Last Saturday I called on Capt. [Israel] Cox — he said he had never heard anything of the company under Capt. Burns you speak of, but said there was a draft made through here for soldiers to defend the place [Louisburg] after it was taken. He gave me a few names that were drafted at that time: John Guinn, one Calwell, James Gaul, James Yates & Ebenezer Cox, his father. He said the place was taken in 1745, given up in 1749, and retaken in 1758. This is all I could gather from him in regard to that affair.

Some time before you asked if Capt. Cox had any old papers relating to Pemaquid, and if so, if he would entrust them to your care a while. I could find but few that related to Pemaquid, and those few seemed to be of but little consequence. I will send them however,— you must take special care of them and return them the first opportunity. * * * *

Your brother M. Johnston.

DICKINSON GENEALOGY. Mr. Frederick Dickinson, 26 Bryant Avenue, Chicago, Ill., "Will undertake to compile and publish at his own risk and expense the descendants of Nathaniel Dickinson, the old Settler, provided sufficient interest is manifested to enable him to procure a complete list."

EAST HAMPTON, CONN. A history of the Congregational Church of this parish, which is one of those comprised in the town of Chatham, Conn., is being prepared. It will contain an account of the proceedings at the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the organization of the Church, held Nov. 3, 1898; also an appendix containing copies of original documents, records of baptisms, marriages and deaths to 1826, admissions and dismissals of church members, etc. The book is to be illustrated and bound. Price to subscribers, $1.00; postpaid, $1.25. The price will be advanced after subscribers are supplied. Address, S. Mills Bevin, Esq., East Hampton, Conn.

FLOWER GENEALOGY. Miss M. E. Flower, 688 North Park Ave., Chicago, Ill., is compiling a genealogy of the descendants of Jamrock Flower, of Hartford, Conn.

LAZELL GENEALOGY. Miss Almira M. Fowler, Galena, Ill., and Mr. Theo. S. Lazell, 31 State St., Boston, Mass., are historians of the family of John Lazell, of Hingham, Mass., 1647. Descendants spell the name variously, La Selle, Lasell, Laselle, Lazell, etc.

*The original paper was probably among the papers of Capt. Israel Cox, mentioned in the preceding note, which Prof. Johnston had received a few days prior to making this copy.

QUERIES.

A charge of one cent per word is made for the insertion of queries, and a year's subscription to THE ADVERTISER will be given for the first correct answer to each query. Queries which could easily be answered by using well known genealogical books will not be accepted.

Wanted:

The ancestry, with authorities, of the following:

65. Richard Ladd, whose son, Richard, was born in Boston, in 1686.
66. Mary Ladd, wife of Dr. Joseph Shattuck. They were married in Boston, Oct. 12, 1708.
67. Mary, wife of Edward Jackson, of Newton. She was born 1665, died 1753.
68. Dorcas French, who married Jan. 3, 1636, Christopher Peake, of Roxbury.
69. Henry Balcom, of Charlestown, Mass., who married, 1666, Elizabeth Haynes.
70. Thomas Crosswell, born 1633, died 1708. He married Priscilla, daughter of John Upham, of Malden.
71. Thomas Stacy, of Cambridge. His son, Joseph, graduated at Harvard College, preached at Kingston, and died in 1741.
72. Bridget Davis, of Sudbury, Mass., wife of Thomas King. I have always supposed her to be a daughter of Robert and Bridget Davis, but the will of the latter, proved in 1677, only mentions one daughter, Sarah. E. P. S.
73. Maiden name of the mother of Ebenezer Davis, of Roxbury, son of William Davis, who was born April 9, 1678, and married April 18, 1700, Hannah White. G. E. J.
74. Ancestry of Mary R. White, Middletown, Conn., married, about 1750, George F. Kyerson, Pompton, N. J.
75. Ancestry of John Harden, died 1718, and wife, Hannah, Braintree and Bridgewater. C. L. D. W.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

47. Elizabeth, the second wife of Isaac<sup>3</sup> Sampson, of Plympton and Middleborough, is referred to in the "Hodges Family," Almon D. Hodges, Jr., on the authority of Deacon Edgar Hodges Reed, and Mr. Isaac W. Wilcox, as probably the daughter of Henry Hodges (William<sup>4</sup>) of Taunton. She married (1) Samuel Shaw, of Taunton, born 1698, died Sept. 1730, Raynham, leaving five sons. She married (2) Jan. 12, 1734, Isaac Sampson, of Plympton. She married (3) Nov. 6, 1750, as his second wife, Deacon Edward Richmond, of Taunton, son of Edward and Mary Richmond, who died Feb. 16 or 17, 1771, in his 75th year. VIRGINIA HALL.

BOOK NOTES.

The Defence of Boston in the War of 1812-15. Prepared for the Bostonian Society and United States Daughters of the War of 1812, with an Appendix containing a Bibliography of the War, and a List of the Officers of the Massachusetts Militia engaged in the Defence. By Walter Kendall Watkins. 1899. 8vo, pp. 42. Price, $1.00.

The first twenty-five pages of this pamphlet are devoted to an interesting narration of the measures taken for the defence of Boston in our second war with Great Britain. A valuable bibliography, comprising nearly two hundred titles relating to this war, is given in the next eight pages, and the remaining pages contain a roster of the officers of the Massachusetts militia engaged in the defence of Boston, in the autumn of 1814. This work will be very useful to the student seeking information upon the subjects treated by the compiler.

ABSTRACTS FROM THE FIRST BOOK OF PLYMOUTH

Will of Richard Wright of Plymouth. He, being "under bodily weaknesses not knowing when the hour of my Death shall come," gives all estate to be equally divided between my three children, Adam, Esther and Mary, daughter Mary to have her living in my house during her widowhood, and son Adam to have a double portion in lands. My son and two daughters to be executors and my loving friends John Nelson and Isaac Cushman, also John Sturtevant, to be overseers. Will dated June 8, 1691, and witnessed by John Cotton, Nathaniel Southworth and Martha Cobb, who made oath to the same, June 24, 1691. [102] Inventory of the estate of said deceased taken June 19, 1691, by Isaac Cushman and John Sturtevant, and presented at court by Adam Wright, June 24, 1691.

[104] Inventory of the estate of Jonathan Barker, late of Middleborough, taken Oct. 31, 1690, by Ebenezer Tinkham and John Howard. Presented at court, Sept. 15, 1691, by Jane Barker, widow of the deceased, who was appointed administratrix, same date.

Estate of William Harlow, late of Plymouth, ordered to be divided: the lands to be divided between the four sons, Samuel, William, Nathaniel and Benjamin, the eldest to have a double portion and the widow to have her dower during her life: goods and chattels to be equally divided among his seven daughters. Date of decree, Sept. 18, 1691. [105] Inventory of said estate was taken Sept. 12, 1691, by Jonathan Barnes, John Doten and Tho: ffaunce. Mary Harlow, widow of Serjt. William Harlow late of Plymouth, made oath to the same Sept. 18, 1691, and was appointed administratrix.

[106] Will of Moses Simmons, "I Being aged and full of Decays * * * and not Knowing of the Day of my Death", bequeaths

To daughter Mary, wife of Joseph Alden, £4 ;

" son Aaron, £4 ;

" daughter Elizabeth, now the wife of Richard Dwelley, 5s.;

" " Sarah, now the wife of James Nash, £2.. 10s. of which the said James hath £2.. 5s. in his hands already ;

To son John, 4*£*, he to be executor. Will dated June 17, 1689, witnessed by Thomas Delano, David Alden and Benjamin Chandler, the last two of whom made oath to the same Sept. 15, 1691.

Administration upon the estate of Richard Child, late of Marshfield, granted to Mary Child, his widow, Sept. 15, 1691. In regard to the smallness of said estate and the poverty of the family, the estate is ordered to be settled upon the widow for her support and the relief of her small children.

[107] Inventory of the estate of Moses Simons late of Duxbury, taken Sept. 10, 1691, by Thomas Delano and Edward Southworth. Amount, *£*33.. 11.. 0. Presented at court by John Simmons, son of the deceased, Sept. 15, 1691.

Inventory of the estate of Richard Child, late of Marshfield, taken Sept. 12, 1691, by Thomas Macomber and Ephraim Little, and presented at court by Joseph Child, eldest son of said deceased, Sept. 15, 1691.

[108] Inventory of the estate of Jacob Dingley, late of Marshfield, taken Sept. 14, 1691, by Anthony Snow, Seth Arnold and Isaac Holmes. [109] and presented at court by Elizabeth Dingley, widow of said deceased, Sept. 15, 1691, administration being granted to her, same date. The estate was ordered to be divided between John Dingley, eldest son, who was to have a double portion, viz.  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the lands, and Joseph Dingley, the other son, who should receive  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the lands, they paying to their three younger sisters, *£*10 each at full age or at day of marriage. The widow was to have goods and chattels for the payment of debts and the bringing up of the younger children, she paying to the three eldest daughters, *£*10 each at their coming to full age or at their marriage.

Will of Richard Stanlake of Scituate dated April 10, 1691, leaves in the hands of Lydia my wife, my whole estate, for her sustenance during her natural life, continuing in my name. "Our children" mentioned. Wife Lydia to be executor. Will witnessed by Thomas Perrey, Jeremiah Hatch and Job Randall. Codicil dated April 22, 1691, witnessed by Thomas Perry and Job Randall, mentions my four daughters, Joanna, Lydia, Mary and Abigail, who are to equally enjoy all my meadow lands after their said mother's death on this condition, "that if their s<sup>d</sup> mother should stand in necessity for her support of more than the profits as within expressed will aford, that they make suitable supply by equall proportion," and if any refuse, their proportion of the said meadow lands is to be forfeited. Thomas Perry and Job Randall made oath to the same with codicil attached, Sept. 15, 1691. [111] Inventory of the said estate taken June 25, 1691, by Jeremiah Hatch and Thomas Pincin and presented at court by Lydia Stanlake, widow of above, Sept. 15, 1691.

[112] Will of Martha Hewet, wife of John Hewet of Marshfield, dated May 1, 1691. My father Christopher Winter late of Marshfield dec<sup>d</sup> devised to me his Daughter Martha and my Children all his goods and chattels and appointed me the said Martha his sole executor. I give of said estate,

NOTES.

PRESTON, CONN. The First Congregational Church of Preston, which celebrated its 200th anniversary last year, will publish, if enough subscriptions are obtained to pay the expense, a volume of about 200 pages, which will contain the admissions, dismissals, baptisms, marriages and deaths from their records. These records are in excellent condition and contain between four and five thousand genealogical entries. The price to advance subscribers will be $2.00. Communications may be addressed to Miss Mary E. Morse, Preston City, Conn.

 BOOK NOTES.

The Mayflower Descendant: a Quarterly Magazine of Pilgrim Genealogy and History. Vol. I., No. 1. January; No. 2, April, 1899. Published by the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, 623 Tremont Building, Boston. Two dollars per annum, single numbers sixty cents.

The Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants and its official organ, "The Mayflower Descendant," the first two numbers of which are before us, are a direct reflection of the genius, energy and perseverance of the founder and secretary of the one, and the originator and editor of the other, Mr. George Ernest Bowman. The remarkable success which has crowned his efforts ought to prove gratifying to him, and a source of congratulation to those who have sympathized with his arduous labors. Each of the two numbers of the "Mayflower Descendant" contains sixty-four pages of historical and genealogical material of exceptional value, without a line of "padding." The most notable contribution is an article by Mr. Bowman (to be continued in subsequent issues) on "The Brewster Book," a dilapidated but unique relic, originally composed of at least 368 pages, 124 of which are missing, and containing important material pertaining to early New England affairs, and genealogical data commencing as early as 1593 relating to the genealogy of the Brewster family. Mr. Bowman's re-discovery of this book and his careful transcription of it would alone entitle him to the gratitude of historical and genealogical scholars. The "Descendant" has commenced the publication of exact copies of the Plymouth Colony Wills and Inventories, instalments of which will appear in each number. The wills of Dr. Samuel Fuller and Mary Ring, and inventories of Mary Ring, Peter Brown, Martha Harding and Richard Lanckford have already been printed. A commencement has also been made of exact copies of Plymouth Colony Deeds, beginning with Vol. II., Volume I. having been published in 1861 as Vol. XII. of the "Records of the Colony of New Plymouth." Another valuable serial is the Births, Marriages and Deaths of Scituate, Mass., literally transcribed by the editor. Mr. F. W. Parker contributes to each number (to be continued in subsequent issues) portions of the diary of Jabez Fitch, jr. (born 1737—died 1812), of Norwich, Conn., which abounds with quaint glimpses of colonial life and delicate morsels for genealogists. Mrs. Ella G. S. Pease of Boston contributes an article on the Bible of Paul Prince (the Son of Benjamin Prince and his wife Abiel Nelson), who was born in 1720, married Hannah Cushing in 1743, had ten children born between 1744 and 1763, and died in 1809. He was a descendant of Elder Brewster and was a man of character and ability. The Bible record of John Taylor, a descendant of Edward Winslow, is contributed by Mr. W. A. Nichols of Redlands, California. A valuable feature of the "Descendant" is, and will be, the photographic reproduction of ancient manuscripts illustrative of the Pilgrims and their descendants. Those that have already appeared are two pages of the "Brewster Book," the record of the Paul Prince Bible, the will of Mary (Chilton) Winslow, and a leaf from the John Taylor Bible. The next number, which will be issued shortly, will contain among other contributions, a copy of Peregrine White's will, with a half-tone illustration of the original document, the will of William Mullins, a paper by the editor on the date of Gov. Bradford's Passenger List, the first instalment of the Births, Marriages and Deaths of Plymouth, and of Plympton, a literal copy of the Division of Cattle in 1627, a continuation of the Plymouth Wills, Inventories and Deeds, the Scituate Births, Marriages and Deaths, the "Brewster Book," and the Jabez Fitch Diary. We welcome the appearance of this new historical and genealogical quarterly and predict for it a brilliant and successful future. Mr. Bowman's enthusiasm, of a character which is exceptionally contagious, gives a peculiar vitality to the enterprise.

Sargent Record. William Sargent of Ipswich, Newbury, Hampton, Salisbury, and Amesbury, New England, U. S., with his Descendants and their Intermarriages and other Sargent Branches. Compiled by Edwin Everett Sargent, St. Johnsbury, Vermont. St. Johnsbury, Vermont, 1899. The Caledonian Company, Printers and Publishers. Price $2.20.

This work is by far the best record of the William Sargent Family that has been published. While many fragments of the family history have been published in town histories and similar publications, and there are in existence several manuscript histories of his descendants, this is the first attempt that has been made to publish them as a whole. The other Sargent Families are only briefly mentioned, little more than a page being devoted to them, and it would have been best if all mention of them had been omitted from the title page. The work is well printed, and seems to have but few typographical errors. On page 27 Josiah Sargent's name is given as Joshua, and this error is carried forward to the later generations. On page 30 Cotton Kimball is given as Colton, and the names of his children are not given.

Several of the dates on page 21 are wrong. This evidently arises from the inability of the author to read the old dates. These dates are easy to read if it is kept in mind that Sept, Octo, Novem, and Decem are the Latin names of the months, and before 1700, were correctly used. The first month at that time was March, and January and February were the eleventh and twelfth months. But the year in common use commenced on the first of January as now, so that when the names January and February were used, they were followed by two year dates. Thus Jan. 1, 1645-6, and to translate into modern dates should be read as of the last date.

The birth of William Sargent is given on the Salisbury records: 2d of ye 11 mo 1645-6. This has been incorrectly translated as Nov. 2, 1645. On the Newbury records it is correctly given as Jan. 2, 1646. The birth of Thomas is first given incorrectly as April 11, 1643. The record says 11, 4mc, 1643, and the date is correctly given on the Salisbury record as June. The date of marriage of Thomas is given Jan. 2, 1667. The record says 2nd, 1mo, 1667-8, which according to the present style would be Mar. 2, 1668. His wife's birth is also given Feb. 3, 1648: it should be 30, 2nd Mo. 1649, or Apr. 1649. The death of the first Elizabeth is given July; it should be 7mo. or Sept. The 2nd Elizabeth was b. 8mo = Oct. and d. 9mo. = Nov. He gives two Sarahs as the children of William. This is an evident error, as one of them died the day the other was born Dec. 29, 1651, is Feb. 29, 1652. The record of birth says 29, 12mo, 1651.

The arrangement of the information is very compact, and all attempt at style is sacrificed for brevity, and this in many cases where it was not at all necessary. Middle names are almost entirely omitted, especially those of the female members of the family. In cases, however, where the name of the male is not carried forward to the next generation, the middle name is given when he is first mentioned; where the name is carried forward the middle name is then given. The name Sargent is not even used in referring to the head of a family. This is of less account as the families of daughters are never carried forward. In some cases even the middle letter is omitted. An instance of this is the name of Philip Watson Challis, who is celebrated among genealogists as being among the first in New England who had a middle name. All information in regard to the parents of women who married Sargents is carefully suppressed. If, however, the woman happened to be a Sargent, a cross reference is given to her parents. There is an excellent index.

The use of abbreviations in the text is far too general. A more logical arrangement of the material would have saved enough space to allow the author to write out much that he has abbreviated. As an instance:

583 John<sup>7</sup> b. Canterbury, N. H., Aug. 27, 1799. m. Dec. 1832, Mary Danforth, Danville, Vt. there where she was b. May 22, 1806 d. Mar.
18, 1879. He d. April 19, 1872, both at D. where he was a far. bur. and c.b.

It would be much plainer as follows:

583 John<sup>7</sup> b. Canterbury, N. H., Aug. 27, 1799. d. April 19, 1872.
m. Dec. 1832, Mary Danforth of Danville, Vt., b. May 22, 1806, d. Mar.
18, 1879. Farmer. They lived, died, and are buried at Danville, Vt.
Cambridge, Mass. STEPHEN PASCHALL SHARPLES, S. B.

John Keep of Longmeadow, Massachusetts, 1660-1676, and his Descendants. Compiled by Frank E. Best. In which is incorporated an unpublished Keep Genealogy prepared by W. J. Keep in 1877; a record of ancestry by Helen E. Keep; and the extended ancestry of Sallie Keep Best. Chicago: 1899. 8vo, pp. 263. For sale by the compiler, P. O. Box 271, Chicago. Price $5.00.

This book treats of the descendants of John Keep whose first appearance on record in America was at Springfield in 1660, and who married, December 31, 1663, Sarah, daughter of John Leonard, of that place. "Some of the descendants of John Keep," says the compiler, "have claimed through John Leonard two lines of descent from William the Conqueror, but this ancestry as claimed is not given here for the reason that the date, place of birth and parentage of John Leonard are not known." A reason worthy of the consideration of a host of Americans seeking "Royal Descents" and "Coats of Arms." Mr. Best has shown equally as good judgment in confining his compilation to the Keep family proper, rarely tracing the descendants of the daughters beyond two generations, usually not farther than one. The volume contains a well-arranged record of nearly a thousand of the descendants of John Keep bearing the name, and is embellished with many appropriate illustrations. The consecutive numbering of the family adds nothing to the usefulness or appearance of the book, and the omission of a binder's title from the back of the volume is to be regretted. An excellent full name index makes the book have permanent value as a work of reference.

Davis Pedigree. By Joseph Davis. Blue print, 20 x 30 inches. Denver, Col., 1899.

This tabular pedigree shows the ancestry in various lines of Joseph, son of William and Maria (Davis) Davis, who was born in Boston, November 24, 1840, and who married at Trinidad, Colorado, November 4, 1874, Sarah Augusta, daughter of Abijah and Elizabeth Ann (Riggs) Davis. A description of a Davis coat of arms is given, but no connection is shown with a transatlantic ancestry.

Proceedings of the John Bean (1660) Association at its Annual Reunion at Manchester, N. H., August 31, 1898. 8vo., pp. 96

This work gives an account of the third reunion of the descendants of John Bean of Exeter, and is the third pamphlet in the series. It contains, besides the business transactions of the Association, brief biographical sketches of Aaron Heywood Bean (with portrait), Moses Dudley Bean, Harry Edgar Bean, and Albert W. Bean, and a genealogy of the first three generations of the family in America compiled by Hon. Josiah H. Drummond, LL.D.

A Supplement to Notes on Joseph Kellogg of Hadley containing notes on the families of Terry, White and Woodbury, by Justin P. Kellogg. Geneva, Switzerland. 1899. 8vo., pp. 45. For private circulation only.

A brief notice of Dr. Kellogg's Notes on Some of the Descendants of Joseph Kellogg appeared in the ADVERTISER last year, (Vol. I. p. 78). This supplement treats of the family of Terry long established in the Manor of Crondal in Hampshire, England a branch of which came to New England, of an allied White family and of the Woodbury and Kellogg families of Massachusetts.

Dorchester Neck, (Now South Boston). The Raid of British Troops, February 13, 1776. Reprinted from the New-England Historical and Genealogical Register, April, 1899. With an Account of the First Settlements at the Neck, and Various Miscellaneous Notes. By Francis E. Blake, Boston, 1899. 8vo., pp. 63.

Under the heading "The British Raid on Dorchester Neck, February, 1776," Mr. Blake, in an interesting manner, gives much valuable data relating to that affair, gleaned from various authentic sources and illustrated with a plan which locates the dwellings destroyed at that time. This is supplemented by an illustrated account of the first families who settled on the peninsula then called Dorchester Neck, and later known as South Boston. The Foster, Wiswell, Bird, Withington, Mather-Jones, White-Wiswell, and Blake families are briefly traced by the compiler, and their estates are shown on the plan above mentioned. The sketch of the Blake family is illustrated by autographs, gravestones, and a plan of the Blake estate made by a member of that family in 1749.

In his Miscellaneous Notes, the compiler brings out considerable information concerning the early roads, local topography, divisions of land, taxes, estates, fortifications, and maps of Dorchester Neck. No collection of American local history that pretends to any degree of completeness can afford to be without this pamphlet.

The Early Schools of Braintree, By Samuel A. Bates, South Braintree, 1899. 12mo., pp. 35. For sale by Frank A. Bates, South Braintree, Mass. Price 25 cents.

This little pamphlet from the pen of the late Samuel A. Bates, who was town clerk of Braintree for a quarter of a century and who edited the volume of printed records of that town, contains a brief history of the town's schools for the first century and a half, with short sketches of the teachers. It is published by the son of the author as one of a series of pamphlets relating Braintree. The other numbers of the series are "First Ironworks in America" and "Revolutionary Soldiers of Braintree."

JOHN WARD DEAN, A. M.

BY RUTH WOOD HOAG, A. B.

The name of John Ward Dean is familiar to all students of early New England history, because in his long life he has done more to awaken an interest in careful research into the early history of America than almost any other man. A brief sketch of his life will show the importance of his work.

John Dean, the son of Charles and Patience (Kingsbury) Dean, was born in Wiscasset, in what was then the District of Maine, on Monday, March 13, 1815. The house in which he was born was of one story and fronted on Water Street. In his early life he bore the name of John Dean, but on July 13, 1857 his name was legally changed to John Ward Dean. He is descended from John Ward, who came from England in 1639, and was the first minister of Haverhill. The father of the latter was the Rev. Nathaniel Ward of Ipswich, author of "The Simple Cobbler of Agawam," and the compiler of the code of laws adopted by the colony in 1641, and known as "The Body of Liberties." Among his ancestors Mr. Dean also numbers Governor Thomas Dudley, and Henry Sewall, who was several times mayor of Coventry in England, and was progenitor of the well known New England Sewall family. The town of Bridgeton, Maine, was named for John Dean's great-grandfather, Moody Bridges, who was one of its proprietors.

Charles Dean, the father of John Ward Dean, and the son of John and Sarah (Bridges) Dean was engaged in the saddler's trade in Wiscasset. There, on October 1, 1805, he married Patience Tappan Kingsbury, the daughter of John and Miriam (Place) Kingsbury. Their children were:—Charles, who died in infancy, Sarah Bridges, Mary Morse, Charles, John and Jeremiah. The family lived in Wiscasset until 1817, and in 1823 settled in Portland. Here Charles Dean resided until his death. He had a literary taste, and was particularly fond of controversial writings on religious subjects. He was brought up in strict Orthodox views, but later in life became a Universalist, a denomination of which his father had great horror and dread.

John Dean's first experience at school was in the district school of the village of Mt. Vernon when he was five years of age. There, as was customary in small country villages, he attended a man's school in winter and a woman's school in summer. Though a faithful scholar, it was not until after he had moved to Portland that he began to take a lively interest in his studies. There his teacher, Benjamin C. Fernald, whom Mr. Dean describes as a man of rare tact, first awakened in his mind a love for those studies which he had previously pursued only from a sense of duty. His schooling ended with four months in the Portland High School. Then he learned the book-binder's trade.

In his youth, Mr. Dean was very fond of reading, but had little opportunity for selection, for his father was able to have only a small library. His great-aunt, Mrs. Dorcas Tyler, of Portland, had a set of the Atheneum, a periodical published at Boston. This work resembled "The Living Age," and consisted of selections from English periodicals. This he borrowed number by number, and read from beginning to end when he was about eleven years old. He was always fond of poetry and read all that came in his way. One of the first volumes was Rogers's Poems containing "The Pleasures of Memory," which he read with great enjoyment. The "Night Thoughts" of Dr. Young, and Thomson's "Seasons" followed soon after; and while he was an apprentice he purchased Aiken's "British Poets," in which his favorite was Milton's "Paradise Lost." After he went into the book-binding business he had books enough to read, and was able to make a selection. He soon began to collect a library, which grew to more than two thousand volumes. In later years his attention has been more especially directed towards books of historical interest, and he has spent many a quiet evening in the perusal of some rare old book.

In the pursuit of his trade, Mr. Dean came to Boston in 1835, and subsequently was in the employ of book-binders in Providence, New York and Philadelphia. In 1841, however, he went into the book-binding business for himself in Providence, R. I., and subsequently in Boston. After a few years, he confined his business to stamping and gilding, an enterprise which he successfully conducted until 1872, when other interests demanded his time.

In 1853 Mr. Dean married Lydia Emerson, daughter of John Scottow and Abigail (Dean) Emerson. During the first five years of their married life they lived on Shawmut Ave., near Hanson Street. The late Rev. Luther Farnham, so prominent in the founding of the General Theological Library, then lived near them. Since 1861, however, Mr. and Mrs. Dean have lived in Medford, where they have a cosy home.

Mr. Dean has always been identified with the Unitarian Church, among whose members he numbers many friends. The late Rev. Caleb D. Bradlee was on intimate terms with him and dedicated to him a volume of his sermons and of his poems. While never taking any prominent part in the business of the Church, Mr. Dean still continues a constant attender of the Church services.

The life of John Ward Dean has centered about the New-England Historic Genealogical Society. To it he has given his best thought and his unwearied service. Elected a member in 1850, he became a life-member in 1859. From the time when he first joined the Society, Mr. Dean took an active part in its proceedings. He filled acceptably one office after another, until, in 1872, he gave up his business to take the position of Librarian. For more than twenty-five years his time has been at the disposal of the New-England Historic Genealogical Society. He resigned his Librarianship in 1889 and devoted his time to editing the Register, but accepted a re-appointment in 1892, and has held the position ever since then. The services which he has rendered have been manifold, as a glance at some of the other offices which he has held will show. For two years, 1855 to 1857, Mr. Dean was Treasurer; from 1857 to 1858 he was Recording Secretary; and from 1859 to 1862 Corresponding Secretary; he was one of the Directors from 1855 to 1889; he has been a member of the Council from 1892 until the present time, and has served on the Committee on Publications ever since 1854.

He has been editor of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register since 1876. Before that time he was associate editor of the numbers from Jan. 1859 to Oct. 1860, editor from Oct. 1862 to Oct. 1863, and from July to October 1864. In the interval between 1864 and 1876 he was a member of the Register Club, pledged to the support of the magazine. The value of his labors in connection with the Register cannot be overstated. To him, more than to any one else, is due its success. He has been able to hold the magazine at a uniformly high standard of excellence for nearly a quarter of a century. The Register has stimulated research in fields which would otherwise have remained uninvestigated, and has made invaluable contributions to the history and genealogy of New England. As a result of Mr. Dean's able editing of its magazine, the New-England Historic Genealogical Society has become more widely known and of more valuable assistance to antiquarians than any similar organization.

A large proportion of the literature on New England genealogy and local history has been published within the last forty years. Mr. Dean made himself familiar with each book as it was issued. Indeed, he often suggested the writing of a book which proved a valuable addition to historical literature. The dedication of Mr. George M. Bodge's "Soldiers of King Philip's War" gives one instance of Mr. Dean's part in such works. It reads:— "To Mr. John Ward Dean, at whose suggestion this work was at first undertaken and to whose kindly advice and helpful interest is largely due its measure of success, this volume is affectionately inscribed by the author." The positions which he has held in the New-England Historic Genealogical Society and his intense interest in historical matters have combined with an accurate memory to give Mr. Dean the vast fund of detailed historical knowledge which he has at ready command and has always been ready to share, in his modest and kindly way, with all who have sought his assistance in research. Dartmouth College recognized Mr. Dean's attainments and, in 1869, honored him with the degree of A. M.

All efforts to render the early history of our country more accessible to the general reader have seemed to Mr. Dean worthy of hearty support. He was one of the charter members of the Prince Society, organized in 1858, whose object was the publication of rare works, in print or manuscript, relating to America. He was President of this Society for ten years, and is the only member who has held an office continuously from the organization of the Society until the present time. The publications now number twenty-eight volumes. A project which Mr. Dean has had much at heart is the formation of a society, on the same principle as the Prince Society, which should publish original works illustrating the history and biography of America. Such a society, he has felt, would perform a valuable service in assisting in the publication of works of value which otherwise might never appear in print. He has proposed the plan under various forms and names, but his busy life has prevented his pushing the matter, and it remains to be tried. That Mr. Dean's interest in historical matters is very strong is evident from the fact that even in his short vacation a few years ago, the only one which he has allowed himself, he spent much of his time visiting places of historic note.

Mr. Dean was elected a Fellow of the American Statistical Association in 1858, and has held various offices there. At present he is one of the Vice-Presidents of the Association. Space does not permit the mention of all the historical societies of which Mr. Dean is a member. More than twenty-five societies, not all confined to the United States, have placed his name on their rolls; one of the latest being the Medford Historical Society, of which he is a charter member.

Mr. Dean's writings have been mainly confined to short biographical sketches, many of which, first appearing in the Register, were later published in pamphlet form. Among these may be mentioned Memoirs of Rev. Giles Firmin, of John H. Sheppard, A. M., of John Merrill Bradbury, and of Col. Joseph L. Chester. Two volumes of greater length should be noticed, the Memoir of Nathaniel Ward, and the Memoir of Rev. Michael Wigglesworth. These works were the result of much careful research on Mr. Dean's part, and are interesting and valuable biographies.

The most important part of Mr. Dean's literary work, however, has been the editing of the writings of others. Aside from the Register already referred to, he edited volumes I. and II., parts 1 and 2, of the first series, and volume IV., part 6, of the second series of the Historical Magazine. Several books and many pamphlets have also been issued under his oversight. A complete list of the works written and edited by Mr. Dean is appended to this sketch.

I may mention that the original portrait of Mr. Dean, of which the photogravure accompanying this sketch is a copy, hangs in the library of the New-England Historic Genealogical Society. It was painted by J. Harvey Young for Hon. John Wentworth of Chicago in 1888, and presented to the New-England Historic Genealogical Society in June of that year by Mr. Samuel Wentworth in behalf of his brother.

At a time when most men would be willing to lay aside the cares of active life Mr. Dean's interest in his work is unabated.

At the age of eighty-four he may yet be found daily in his accustomed place at the library of the Genealogical Society. He still maintains a general oversight of the work which his advanced age has compelled him to entrust largely to others.

BOOK NOTES.

Simsbury Connecticut Births Marriages and Deaths Transcribed from the Town Records And published by Albert C. Bates Librarian Connecticut Historical Society Hartford 1898 [8vo, pp. 345. 150 copies printed. Price $5.00.]

Mr. Bates transcribed the earlier portion of Simsbury records in the autumn of 1889, but, for various reasons, did not begin printing until February, 1898, at which time substantial encouragement was received from Gen. Lucius A. Barbour, of Hartford, a descendant of several early settlers of Simsbury. All of the vital records prior to 1832, from volumes one and two of the deeds, and volumes two, three and four of the transactions of the town, are here printed. The utmost care has been exercised in comparing the proof sheets with the original records, the defects being indicated by brackets, and doubtful readings queried or annotated. The contents are rendered available by a complete full name index in which the present spelling of the surnames is used with references when necessary from former spellings.

Very few of the present generation of Simsbury's inhabitants will fully appreciate the value of Bates's labor for the ultimate preservation of the vital records of their town. Other New England towns may have had their records as carefully copied and edited, but few, if any, have had them printed on stout linen paper like that used in this book. Mr. Bates's occupation is one that daily impresses him with the necessity of using only the best paper for preserving in print primary historical and genealogical data. It is quite probable that many copies of this book, still intact and good for centuries of future use, will survive the time when the wood-pulp volumes to which so many New England town and family memorials have been committed for preservation shall have utterly crumbled away.

Genealogical and Biographical Memorials of the Reading, Howell, Yerkes, Watts, Latham and Elkins Families. By Josiah Granville Leach, LL.B., Member of the Historical and Genealogical Societies of Pennsylvania; New-England Historic Genealogical Society; Virginia Historical Society, and Essex Institute; Historian of Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution, and of Pennsylvania Society of Mayflower Descendants; and author of "Memoranda Relating to the Ancestry and Family of Hon. Levi P. Morton." Printed for private circulation by J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia. MDCCCXCVIII. 4to. pp. 286.

This magnificent volume contains fairly complete records of the descendants of John Reading and Thomas Howell, who were pioneers of West New Jersey, and briefer accounts of the other families mentioned in the title. Col. Leach and his printers have spared no pains in their endeavor to make this one of the most attractive memorials of American families thus far issued. The ornamental initials, head-pieces, tail-pieces, and title-page which adorn the book, were designed especially for this work by Mr. Edward Stratton Holloway of Philadelphia. It is printed on fine hand-made paper with deckle-edges, and is illustrated by many appropriate engravings.

A Hand-Book of Practical Suggestions for the use of Students in Genealogy. By Henry R. Stiles, A.M., M.D. Author of History of Brooklyn, N. Y.; History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Conn.; The Connecticut Stiles Family; Editor of History of Kings County and the City of Brooklyn; and of The Humphrey Family in America, &c., &c., &c. Copyrighted, 1899, by J. Munsell's Sons. Albany, N. Y.: Joel Munsell's Sons, Publishers. 1899. 4to. pp. 55. Price, $1.00.

A good manual for the use of beginners in American genealogical work has been needed for a long time. Only a slight examination of any large collection of American family histories is needed to convince the most skeptical of the truth of this assertion. In no other division of the entire fund of printed information is it possible to find so many methods of arrangement of similar data, such a variety of sizes, shapes, and styles of volumes, pamphlets, and broadsides, and so low a standard of scholarship. The prevailing idea among family historians seems to have been the production of genealogies differing from all previously printed. Dr. Stiles's book deals in an able manner with most of the problems which sooner or latter confront the novice, and it should be thoroughly studied by every person engaged in compiling a genealogy of an American family.

Ten Years at Pemaquid. Sketches of its History and its Ruins. By J. Henry Cartland. Pemaquid Beach, Maine. 1899. 8vo. pp. vii.+197. Price, $2.00.

Mr. Cartland has endeavored to write an interesting book about a historic locality concerning which much has been written during the last fifty years. He has drawn freely from Professor Johnston's scholarly History of Bristol and Bremen, the Collections of the Maine Historical Society, and various other printed authorities for his materials. Considerable space has been devoted to the ancient ruins, relics and paved streets which mark the site of a once populous settlement. The book will probably have a large sale among the many tourists who visit the place during the summer months.

The Peaslees and Others of Haverhill and Vicinity. By E. A. Kimball. Haverhill, Mass.: Press of Chase Brothers. 1899. 8vo. pp. 72. Price, $1.50.

The compiler of this book has preserved and rendered available to inquirers family traditions concerning the Peaslees and allied families of Haverhill and vicinity. To these fragments of family history have been added many pertinent gleanings from various printed and manuscript sources. Several appropriate illustrations embellish the volume, and a good index adds much to its usefulness.

THE NEW-ENGLAND

Historical and Genealogical Register

Contains a variety of valuable and interesting matter concerning the History, Antiquities, Genealogy and Biography of America.

It was commenced in 1847 (Vol. 53 began in January 1899), and it is the oldest historical periodical now published in this country. It is issued quarterly (each number containing at least 96 octavo pages, with a portrait on steel) by the New-England Historic Genealogical Society.

$3.00 per annum. Single numbers 75 cents.

No library can afford to be without it, and every genealogist finds matter of interest in each number. Address, B. B. TORREY, Treas., 18 Somerset St., Boston, Mass.

ELWIN G. DAVIS,

Genealogist,

173 Winnisimn St., Chelsea, Mass.

Records examined and copied anywhere in New England.

---

FRANK A. HUTCHINSON,

GENEALOGIST,

Room 342 TREMONT BUILDING, BOSTON.

Genealogies and Local Histories for sale.

A GENEALOGICAL MAGAZINE.

Putnam's Historical Magazine, now in its eighth year, is valuable for the town, parish and county records which have appeared therein. To descendants of Maine, Eastern Mass., and Connecticut families, Putnam's is especially useful.

An authentic coat-of arms of an American family appears in each number in colors. Putnam's is the magazine for Essex County genealogical material. Sample copies 25 cents; $2.00 per annum.

EBEN PUTNAM, Box 199, Salem, Mass.

THE ESSEX ANTIQUARIAN,

An Illustrated Monthly Magazine devoted to the History,
Genealogy, Biography, and Antiquities of Essex County, Massachusetts.

EDITED BY

SIDNEY PERLEY, Esq.

A genealogical dictionary of the County to 1800 is being published in the form of arranged genealogies; also lists of Revolutionary soldiers and sailors, including service; military rolls; old Norfolk County records (1643 to 1679), containing deeds, wills, etc.; early wills, church and parish records, baptisms, deaths, cemetery inscriptions, old newspaper news-items and obituaries; court records, old letters, etc. Sketches of customs and early industries, with much other original data valuable alike to genealogist and historian, appear monthly. Index of every surname with December issue. Vol. II. began January 1898. $1 per annum. Sample copies 10 cents. Send for booklet.

A NEW EDITION OF "SOLDIERS IN KING PHILIP'S WAR."

By REV. GEORGE MADISON BODGE.

THE new edition of this work is now ready; a limited number of copies being available to those who apply at once. Much new material has been added, including lists of Grantees of the "Narragansett Townships," never before published, and an appendix of twenty-five pages containing lists of the Colonial Governors of the three colonies from 1625 to 1686, with rosters of officers, and lists of soldiers not previously mentioned. No well ordered American library is complete without this book. The volume is a handsome octavo of 520 pages, with complete indexes of names and places. Edges uncut; material, printing and binding excellent. The lists of soldiers contain thousands of names.

"Mr. Bodge's handsome volume is a monument of antiquarian industry and research, in the interest rather of genealogy than of history, as being the chief concern of the legion of recent patriotic societies like that of which our author is chaplain"—The Nation.

Price, cloth, $6.00; half morocco, $7.00. Sent prepaid upon receipt of the price, by the author.
